SPEAKER INFORMATION

Hear from priest, psychologist, professor and television host Fr. Benedict Groeschel, CFR, as well as Dr. Paul Vitz, psychologist, professor and author on making an inventory of the past to better build the future. You will also be enriched by the many priests, religious and lay people involved in ministry sharing their own experiences.

FR. BENEDICT GROESCHEL, CFR, ED.D.

Professor, Pastoral Psychology, St. Joseph's Seminary

Director, Office for Spiritual Development, Archdiocese of New York

Fr. Groeschel has published a number of books and tapes on spiritual and pastoral counseling, including Spiritual Passages: The Psychology of Spiritual Development; Listening at Prayer; In the Presence of the Lord: The Psychology, History and Theology of Eucharist Adoration, and numerous others.

Fr. Groeschel founded and is on the staff of Trinity Retreat, a center for prayer and study for clergy. He has taught at Fordham University, Iona College, and Maryknoll Seminary.

DR. PAUL VITZ, PH.D.

IPS Professor and Senior Scholar

Dr. Vitz is an expert on the integration of Christian theology and psychology, breaking from the secular humanism and post-modern relativism prevalent today. He is a well-known author and speaker whose books include Psychology as Religion: The Cult of Self-Worship; Sigmund Freud's Christian Unconscious; Modern Art and Modern Science: The Parallel Analysis of Vision; and Faith of the Fatherless: The Psychology of Atheism. He was Professor of Psychology at New York University for many years prior to joining the Institute for the Psychological Sciences.

FROM PAST PARTICIPANTS :

"I was hoping for a professional, academic, scholarly and thoroughly Catholic presentation and I received it."

"I gained knowledge in several areas of ministry. I came hoping to hear some good talks on interesting subjects and I wasn't disappointed!"
